

A Daughter's Gratitude

For Mother

Roxanna L. Glass

Gently, Fervently

1

1. God in hea - ven, good and kind, Thank Thee for the peace I
2. Thank Thee for my moth - er's hands, Deeds more boun - teous than the 5

find, For the Light in all I see, For the joy Thou send - est sands, Love which healed all mi - se - ry, Words which taught me faith in me. Thank Thee for those in my life Who are lov - ing, void of Thee. In all things that I may say, Let me fol - low her good strife. Teach me, God, like them to be; Help me oth - ers hearts to see.

9

13

way, That I might be more like Thee, Filled with strength and cha - ri - ty.